TUESDAY FEBRUARY 13, 1912

However brilliant an action, it should not be estimated great unless the result of a great motive.—Le Rochetoucauld.

SUPPORT TAFT'S POLICY FOR PEACE IN HAWAII.

President Taft believes that a commissioner sent to Hawaii to make a personal investigation is the only solution of the Frear-Kuhio affair.

Now Taft men, stand by.

You are for the nomination and election of Mr. Taft. You certainly must be for his policies in Hawaii.

Mr. Taft is right. A Commissioner will solve the problem in so far as it can be solved by the President.

The rest of it is up to the common sense of the citizens of this Territory.

The Bulletin therefore suggests that the Taft men as represented in the Taft League and out of it agree to this proposition:

Put the Kuhio-Governorship matter up to the Commissioner and agree to stand by the conclusion of that Commissioner, accept his report as the President will undoubtedly do, and let that settle it.

That is a fair platform on which all should get together, and it will incidentally solve a great many problems that are seriously threatening not only the Republican party of Hawaii but the general welfare of the Territory as a whole.

If the Taft men are ready to support Mr. Taft and his policies they should certainly be prompt and willing in their response to accept the Taft plan for settling what has become a very unpleasant episode in Hawaiian politics, an episode that threatens to do more disrupting than can be patched up in years of struggle against factionalism.

You must concede that Delegate Kuhio has some friends and influence in Washington when the President of the United States refrains from making an appointment against which the Delegate protests and which the Secretary of the Interior urges should be made immediately. So don't go to work like children and think you can smash the life out of the Delegate without his bringing the house down about your ears before he quits Congress.

HOLD THE RESTORER

Editor EVENING BULLETIN: It is reported that the cableship Restorer will shortly be despatched to Midway or Guam, via Honolulu, with supplies, and also to make certain repairs on the cable line.

I hope that the Bulletin and other daily papers will take the opportunity of stating up the subject of having the cableship Restorer again stationed at this port. The facts and conditions which led up to the Restorer's being taken from Honolulu are pretty well known, and I think it would be opportune for the Chamber of Commerce, Mercantile Association and all business for Honolulu to exert influence to have water rates and harbor charges adjusted so as to make it possible for the cableship to be maintained here on an economical basis.

It is pretty well known that the principal complaint that the cable company had was the unusual charge for water, and this, coupled up with the other port charges, made it almost prohibitive for the cable company to station the boat here.

As the Restorer is about to again appear in these waters it seems to me it would be a good chance to appeal to the cable company and to offer some inducement for them to reconsider their former decision. There is no question but that the stationing of such boats as the Restorer in this port will increase trade, and if the port charges can be reduced, now is the time to exert an effort to get the boat stationed here. Very truly yours,

SHORTY SPURT.

$80,000 FOR PEARL HARBOR

That the full appropriation of $80,000 asked for buying and lighting the Pearl Harbor channel, will probably be awarded by Congress, is indicated by the following from the last issue of the Army and Navy Journal:

"Advice was received by the Bureau of Yards and Docks on January 25 that the new channel for Pearl Harbor has been completed. This is the largest dredging contract ever undertaken by the Navy Department, and one of the largest pieces of river and harbor work done by the government.

Owing to the failure of Congress to appropriate money two years ago the contractors were just one month over time in doing the work. The time limit for dredging the channel was three years. In round numbers the work cost three million dollars. Over five million yards of coral rock were excavated in the construction of the channel. The channel is four and a half miles long, with a minimum depth of thirty-five feet and a width of five hundred feet at the bottom. The channel will make Pearl Harbor one of the best harbors on the Pacific. The Senate committee on commerce on January 25 reported favorably Senator Nelson's bill, appropriating $80,000 for aids to navigation in Pearl Harbor."

Bulletin Want Ads will find it.

EVENING SMILES

"May I count upon getting your vote, Miss Teaker?"

"Oh! I shan't be old enough to vote for two years yet."

"Is Beauty Passing?" demands the Rochester Post-Express.

One way to find out would be to have the windows washed.

The Caller: I think your husband always dresses so nice and quietly.

The Wife: Oh, does he, indeed? You should hear him when he loses a collar stud!

WELCOME MAKES HONOLULU FRIEND

That the efforts of Honolulu people in giving the last party of Cleveland globe-trotters a royal good time were fully appreciated, is the pleasing news brought back by the ship's officers and executive staff. By all accounts the travelers who sailed away a month ago carried with them the impression that the best had been reserved for the last, and that the brightest memory of their trip would be the two days spent in Happy Hawaii.

What is still more to the point, from the standpoint of island popularity, the tourists did not let the matter rest with casual talk among themselves. They flooded the mail with postcards which sang the praises of Honolulu in prose and picture; they shouted their opinion of Honolulu's charms the moment they came within earshot of the dock at San Francisco; they even greeted the hospitable Californians by dilating on the beauties of Hawaii, instead of exclaiming on the beauties of the Golden Gate.

"Honolulu made a great impression on our last party," said one of the Hamburg-American representatives today. "Leaving the feeling of hospitality and friendliness out of it for the time being, it was certainly a good business move to turn out such a representative crowd of citizens and show all the attention to the passengers that you did. It was fine publicity, and resulted in the securing of about 200 first-class boosters and traveling representatives of the community."

The visit to Honolulu was the one topic of conversation all the way from here to San Francisco, from all accounts.

GREAT LINER PLEASES TOURISTS

The Cleveland will remain at Alakea wharf for forty-eight hours, the great liner to cast off her lines and to point her prow Japanwards at five o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Cleveland attracted a large crowd at the waterfront this morning. The big vessel came alongside Alakea wharf with but very few changes in her complement of officers. While the Cleveland sailed within an hour of the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru, the German vessel steamed down from San Francisco in a more leisurely manner. Captain Dempwolf is keeping close to the schedule mapped out for him by the Hamburg-America Line officer who has the excursion party in charge.

The Cleveland's visit to San Francisco was the incentive for a series of receptions in which several commercial bodies at the Bay cities participated. During the stay of the Cleveland at San Francisco a vast quantity of provisions were taken on board. The great floating hotel was thoroughly cleaned, renovated and provisioned in six days' time. The supplies included 168,000 pounds of fresh meat, 60,000 pounds of poultry, 30,000 pounds of fish, 19,000 pounds of butter, 350,000 bottles of water, and 99,000 bottles of wine.

The Cleveland list of officers includes well-known favorites, among whom is Captain Christopher Dempwolf. Assisting the veteran skipper of the ship on the world tour are: Kruse, 1st officer; H. H. Warnecke, 2nd officer; G. Koch, 3rd officer; R. Pries, 4th officer; H. Schulz, 5th officer, and R. Sackl, 6th officer.

Ch. Stehr, a well-known Hamburg-American line steamship man, is chief engineer, assisted by F. Krone as 2nd; C. Hansel, 3rd; H. Deelwater, 4th; P. Adam, 5th; B. Fanning, 6th; W. Bohme, 7th. These men have visited Honolulu on a previous occasion.

The Cleveland passengers are looked after by two qualified physicians, Dr. A. Lubbert and Dr. Aug. Bostrom. Mrs. Ehrlicher serves in the capacity of trained nurse.

One of the busiest men at this port and San Francisco is A. Martini, who represents the Hamburg-America line commissary department in the Cleveland.

D. Polner is purser, with E. Polster as assistant, and P. Franzen as provision master.

The chief steward's staff is a large one including several hundred men in the various departments. There are under the direct supervision of A. Sturm and A. Henschel, as chiefs, with a corps of assistants, including P. Grass, A. Johansen, O. Staak and A. Kitzmuller.

Professor J. Dahl is leader of a fine stringed orchestra which has played throughout the voyage at meal times and during social sessions on the broad deck of the Cleveland.

The managers of the inquiry and tourist office on board the Hamburg-American line steamship Cleveland are C. Vogelsang of Hamburg and C. Scherer of Berlin, assisted by the following: L. Lindes, C. H. Lody, P. Moller, A. Pratsch, W. H. Stanley, L. D. Stone, Ad. Vock, G. Wedekind and L. Weleham.

A public reception will be held on board the Cleveland during the 48-hour stay of the vessel with its 528 round-the-world travelers.

The size, stability and mechanical efficiency of the Cleveland being assured, one is particularly interested to know the interior provisions of what is to constitute the abode of the tourist during travels extending over three and a half months.

Elevator Service.

Electric elevator service operates between the five upper decks, which are also connected by a grand and smaller companionways. The grand entrance hall and companionway have been so treated in form and decoration as to present a highly artistic architectural effect. The splendidly furnished dining room extends the width of the ship, and has easy tables seating two, four or six persons. An electric lamp with decorative shade adorns each table, making the room altogether one of the most pleasant ever seen on an ocean steamer.

At the head of the grand staircase the social hall or lounge with its pillared dome, ornate decorations, luxurious divans and well-selected library, invites to pleasant leisure. The writing room is next by. Opportunity for entertainment and recreation is afforded by the music and ladies' room. From this room a beautiful vestibule and covered passage lead to the splendid smoking room, whose paneled walls, coating in dark woods, easy chairs upholstered in red leather, convenient tables, stained-glass dome and impressive fireplace, render it the finest of dens on a magnificent scale. It is entered also by staircase from the lower decks, and convenient access is also had to the open-air promenade, with its sheltered corners.

Many Accommodations.

The public or semi-public saloons outlined above by no means exhaust the provisions made for the accommodation of patrons in general. The Judge Whitney's court, fourteen attorneys and one lone witness left this morning in automobiles for Kaneohe, where an inspection of the premises will be made in connection with the case of the Kaneohe Ranch Company against the Kaneohe Rice Mill Company.

The hearing in the case was started yesterday, when the court was forced to move to the Senate chamber in order to accommodate the crowd. Soon after the session opened this morning it became necessary for the court to visit the premises, and a flying trip was made. The afternoon session was set down for 2 o'clock in the Senate chamber, however, when further testimony will be taken.
